

Meet our panelists

who will join our webinar on climate change & media literacy to answer our and your questions!

19 September 2023

17:00-19:00 CET

More information in the description.

Co-funded by
the European Union

Alexandra Panos

Alexandra Panos (PhD) is Assistant Professor of Literacy Studies at the University of South Florida. Her research focuses on the ecological & geographic dimensions of literacies education.

Eco-literacy and Green Education for Climate Action

Co-funded by
the European Union

Spyros Psychas

He is a partner of the Hellenic Network for the Fight against Poverty, and the Center for Lifelong Learning of Panteion University in Athens, as well as an environmental activist.

Co-funded by
the European Union

Olof Sundin

Olof Sundin (PhD) is professor of Information Studies at Lund University. His research includes the study of media & information literacy as infrastructural meaning-making.

Eco-Literacy and Green Education for Climate Action

Co-funded by
the European Union

Nikos Chrysogelos

Former Member of the European Parliament from the Greens/European Free Alliance. He is a chemist – environmentalist with a strong ecological and environmental record.

Co-funded by
the European Union

James Damico

James Damico (PhD) is a Professor of Literacy, Culture, and Language Education at Indiana University. His scholarship focuses on critical literacy and teaching & learning about climate change.

Co-funded by
the European Union

